

THE PRIMARIES.

Indications Point to a Heavy Vote
If the Weather is Good.

THE CANDIDATES ARE BOSTY

Putting in Their Last and Hardest
Licks - Another Day and the Voters Will be Recording Their Verdict—There Are Many Rumors
as to This Candidate or That Being Irrevocably Lost.

To-morrow the Republican county primaries will be held in Ohio county, and the interest in the contests being waged is at fever heat. All the indications point to a very heavy vote if the weather is propitious. The Australian ballot will make the voting slower than at any former primary, and it is just possible that there will be more or less congestion at some of the voting places, especially in Clay district, where the committee provided but one voting place.

Yesterday the candidates were putting in their hardest ticks, and to-day will see the finish of their campaign—and none of them will feel the least regret, for the strain has been intense for several days. There are rumors of this or that candidate being irrevocably lost, but these must be taken with the proverbial grain of salt. In other words, the result cannot be prognosticated in advance of the casting of the votes.

The Intelligence on Saturday morning will publish the names of the judges and clerks who will officiate at the primary. These names are in the hands of the several county committeemen, and are to be reported to County Chairman Hornish this afternoon.

Hon. James K. Hall, of Wheeling, who was circulating among the Putnam Republicans Saturday, and who is a candidate for auditor on the state ticket, is a gentleman in every respect. He is an excellent mixer, a hustler and he made a number of friends outside of the party. No other candidate for this office will receive a single vote of Putnam's delegation unless it be Hon. A. C. Scherr, of Keyser. Mr. Hall was chairman of the executive committee in Ohio county, and under his leadership the Republicans have increased their majority each year—Putnam Republican.

Chairman Dawson, of the Republican state committee, has arranged with the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, including all branches in this state; with the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, the Norfolk & Western railroad, the Kanawha & Michigan railroad, the West Virginia Central & Pittsburgh railroad, and the Ohio River railroad for reduced rates of transportation from all points in this state to Fairmont on account of the state delegate convention to be held at Fairmont on May 8. Round trip tickets will be sold from May 5 to 8, inclusive, good to return until May 11, inclusive, at the rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip. On the Norfolk & Western railroad tickets will be good for return to and including the 15th. Card orders will be used on the West Virginia Central & Pittsburgh railroad, which orders have been sent to the county chairmen in the counties of Tucker, Randolph and Barbour, to whom application should be made by persons living in these counties. No card orders are required on the other railroads. The Ohio River railroad will sell tickets both via Parkersburg and Moundsville, but advise that the best train service is via Moundsville, and that tickets should be purchased that way.

Governor G. W. Atkinson is in the city en route to Pittsburgh, where he goes to attend the annual banquet of the American Club, of which organization he is an active member. The governor is looking well and feeling well, because he is confident of a great Republican victory in West Virginia this fall. He says there is positively no doubt of the election of the state ticket by an increased majority over four years ago. Nothing short of 18,000 or 20,000 will satisfy the governor. He gives four reasons for the faith that dwells within him.

"In the first place," said the governor, "the Republican party in West Virginia has the advantage of being entrenched, or behind the breastworks. Secondly, there has been a great influx of population into the state in the last four years, five-sixths of which is Republican; thirdly, the state is wonderfully prosperous and undergoing a magnificent development, and the people are not anxious to make a change; finally, because the party is in the best fighting trim for years, our boys being as frisky and pugnacious as sucking rats. Viewing the situation from every standpoint I am confident that my majority of 14,000 four years ago will be increased 20 per cent this fall—it may be larger, certainly not less."

MR. SCHENNERLEIN'S CARD.

He Denies Libelous Stories Circulated Concerning Him.

Wheeling, W. Va., April 26, 1900.
To the Voters of Madison District:
Through the effort and kindness of my many friends I was nominated at the regular Republican suggestion meeting, April 14, for the office of county commissioner of Madison district. Since then, ending in illness, I have been unable to meet my many friends personally and therefore take the means through your valuable paper to solicit the support of the voters of Madison district at the regular primary election to be held April 28.

In connection with the above, I desire to deny and denounce as malicious falsehoods some reports which are being circulated by persons who have used this means to injure me. It has been circulated that I sold the Wheeling Ferry and Packet Co.'s boat, and for same transaction received $1,000 from the Bridge Company; also that this money was never accounted for. The late board of directors of the Ferry Company held a receipt from the assistance of the Ferry Company for the amount. Also, that I, my family and team have a pass from the bridge company to pass over at all times free of toll. In denial thereof I desire to say up to date, I have always paid my toll and same can be verified at the office of the bridge company.

Again it is reported that I have made promises, it elected, to vote for certain measures that would come before the Ohio county commissioners. I have made no such promises and pledge myself only to serve the best interests of Madison district, if elected. All these reports I denounce as deliberate and malicious falsehoods and circulated only to do me injury.

I hereby respectfully submit myself to the voters of Madison district with many thanks to my friends for the efforts and support on my behalf, and particularly to Mr. George Bradbury, for his withdrawal in my favor. Respectfully yours,
C. E. SCHENNERLEIN.
County Assessor.

To the Republicans of Ohio County:
I have seen all of you that I possibly could, and to those that I have not I want to say that I am in this contest for county assessor (county district), believing that I can fill the position to the satisfaction of the tax-payors of Ohio county. Believing that after one man has held the position a reasonable length of time (eight years) there is a chance for another, I have done all I could do in my own behalf, and to-morrow you will say who you want. Asking you to give me your kindest consideration, I am Yours sincerely,

LESTER SMITH.

Without His Knowledge.

To the Editor of the Intelligence.
SIR:—If there is a slate or slates in Madison district or any other district, I would like to be on all of them, but it is not through any act of mine that I figure on the alleged slate in Madison district. What I desire above all else is a majority of the votes in Saturday's primary election.

LESTER SMITH.
Wheeling, April 26.

On No Slate.

To the Editor of the Intelligence.
SIR:—In your issue of this morning, you make mention of my name in connection with a "slate" in Madison district. This is the first intimation I have had that such a report was in circulation, and state that I am not now, nor have I at any time, been connected with any such arrangement, and know nothing concerning the alleged combination, if any such thing exists. As the report is circulated to injure me in my candidacy for school commissioner, I ask that you publish this in your issue of to-morrow (Friday) morning, and oblige.
Yours respectfully,
C. H. WATKINS, JR.

OHIO-SIDE POLITICS.

Charles Howard, of Belmont, made one of the best speeches of the day in nominating Joe Blackburn. That speech did Blackburn good, and Howard has been given many words of praise for it. Blackburn kept hard at work at his headquarters after the convention adjourned. Visitors poured in upon him, and many were men who had opposed him during the ballots. Once he was the convention's choice they came to him rapidly, assuring him of support. In view of ante-convention remarks, such action was as significant as pleasing. Secretary Bailey, of the Dairymen's Association, was one of the first callers. He had fought Joe persistently, but now declares that Blackburn will get united support from those who fought against his nomination. It was also significant that Blackburn had the Western Reserve almost solid, and the Reserve is the great dairy region of Ohio.—Columbus Journal.

Pneumonia

always leaves the lungs weak. Weak lungs are breeding grounds for the germs that cause consumption. Chronic bronchitis also often follows pneumonia. If you have had pneumonia, the germs of consumption are at work. Don't let them get a foothold. Begin at once and take SCOTT'S EMULSION; it will drive out the germs by making the lungs stronger than they are.

THE OLD SOLDIERS.

The Eighteenth Annual Encampment of the Grand Army

IN MOUNDSVILLE CONCLUDES

And Has Been One of the Most Successful and Enjoyable Functions in the History of the West Virginia Department—Governor Atkinson One of the Distinguished Visitors Thursday—The Officers Elected.

The eighteenth annual encampment of the West Virginia department of the G. A. R. and the other various soldier organizations, which closed at Moundsville yesterday, was pronounced by all in attendance to be the best ever held in the state, and the boys in blue, with their wives and friends, left Moundsville last evening for their homes in the various parts of the state with a firm belief that Moundsville is the best place they ever struck and that the hospitality of her citizens cannot be surpassed anywhere.

After the grand rally of the boys at the camp fire Wednesday night, where the scenes and happenings of thirty odd years ago were lived over again, they seemed younger again, and yesterday morning, when they met, after a good night's rest, it was with the old-time feeling that they clasped each other's hands, outdoing even the office-seeker in their earnestness.

At 9 o'clock the encampment went into executive session and proceeded to elect officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows:

Department commander—Arnold Bradley, of Elkkins.
Senior vice commander—M. B. Bartlett, of Parkersburg.
Junior vice commander—C. C. Matthews, of Moundsville.
Medical director—Dr. R. W. Hall, of Moundsville.

Chaplain—Taylor Richmond.
The following delegates to the national encampment, to be held at Chicago, August 27th, next, were elected: Wm. Kirk, Parkersburg, and W. C. Parker, Fairmont.

Delegates at large—A. C. Moore, Clarksburg; alternates—S. B. Ayers, Grafton; Thomas Mills, New Martinsville, and Daniel Younken, Moundsville.

At this juncture the session was thrown open to the public, and Governor G. W. Atkinson was introduced to the large audience by ex-Department Commander Richard Robertson. In a very neat speech, the governor's address was a very appropriate and eloquent and filled with patriotic utterances. Chairman Robertson next proceeded to install the officers elect in due form, administering the obligation of office. Following this the newly elected officers of the W. R. C. and Ladies of the G. A. R. were installed.

At 2 o'clock the parade was formed in front of the court house, on Seventh street, and marched through the principal streets of the city. The city officials in carriages led the procession. Following in the order named came Conley's cornet band, over 200 G. A. R. soldiers, about 50 ladies of the G. A. R. and W. R. C., the Sons of Veterans, the G. A. R. drum corps of Wheeling, the "Uniform" Band, K. of P., and the fire department. The parade stopped in front of the state penitentiary and Warden Hawk and his corps of efficient guards showed the visitors and their friends through the institution, a feature which the veterans greatly enjoyed.

The Woman's Relief Corps, at a session held in the L. O. O. F. hall, yesterday morning, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Margaret Whitman, of Benwood; senior vice president, Mrs. Wm. Hicks, Moundsville; junior vice president, Mrs. Delcher, Charleston; treasurer, Mrs. Mary J. Worthen, Grafton; chaplain, Mrs. Lyons, Wheeling; delegates at large to the national convention, Mrs. Sterling Parkersburg; alternate, Mrs. Leitch, Charleston; delegate, Mrs. Chapman, Central City; alternate, Mrs. Keller, McMechen; executive board, Mrs. Conko, Wheeling; Mrs. Brush, Newwood; Miss Eva Hall, Moundsville; Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Wise, of Wheeling.

The Sons of Veterans elected the following officers: Commander, Colonel J. W. McClung, of Grafton; senior vice commander, O. B. Beer, of French Creek; upsur commander, Junior vice commander, W. B. Robinson, of Charleston. The B. B. Dovers camp, of Moundsville, which has not been in active operation for some time past, paid up all back dues and was reinstated, thus placing the camp in good standing in the department. The next annual state encampment and convention of the various ladies' organizations will be held in Parkersburg.

The Holiday Post G. A. R. Drum, Pipe and Bugle Corps was out in full force at Moundsville yesterday, having the following members in the parade: Major—John Albert.
Buglers—Clarance Echols, Leroy Reed, Hal Hawkins, J. Eccles.
Pipers—Peter H. Hannon, Arthur Schenk, John Crow, Oscar Schwartz.
Drummers—H. J. McGivern, John Thomas, William Brennan, John Sheehy, Frank Duerr.
Bass and Cymbals—William Crumbacker, John Crumbacker.

The corps, after the parade and inspection of the prison, led the prisoners, 733 in number, in a parade through the prison grounds. A short halt was made in front of the stand where Governor Atkinson and his staff were stationed, and a bugle salute was given by Leroy Reed, which was acknowledged pleasantly by the governor. It was the grandest affair the corps has taken part in since its organization.

BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

Will Zarnis, a Cathedral cadet, while riding a bicycle on South Market street yesterday, took a "header" and sustained several cuts on his head.

A ball and cake walk will be given at Everett hall, corner Eleventh and Market streets, this evening, by the Union League Political Club, composed of young men of Clay district.

The county commissioners' committee on finance met yesterday afternoon and framed the annual appropriation ordinance for the county, which will be up for passage at the regular monthly meeting of the board on Monday.

A squabble over a dividing line fence will be aired in Squire Fitzpatrick's court this evening. August Turbat charges William and Mary Johnson of the National road, with using profane language, and he requests price bonds.

The case against Michael Hoe, charged with destroying a shade tree, belonging to the Beabout club, was to have come up before Squire Rogers yesterday, but it will likely be compromised out of court. The hearing was continued.

The state fair association announces that the race track is now open for the season, and there will be no charge for its use by horsemen or cyclists until next Tuesday, when season tickets for horsemen can be had at $3 and for cyclists at $2.

On Wednesday occurred the death of Mrs. James G. Reeves, of Wellsburg, well known in Wheeling. She recently underwent an operation at a hospital in Allegheny, but the result was not the favorable one hoped for. The funeral occurs to-day at Wellsburg, and the interment at West Alexander to-morrow.

The Arion's closing event of the season of 1899-1900 was a kaffee visit, given last night at the society's club house, at the corner of Main and Twelfth streets, by the ladies of the Arion. It was largely attended, and was the customary social success. The ladies served a delightful spread during the earlier evening hours.

The Eighth Ward Republican Club held a good meeting last night at Arion's hall, at which many of the candidates were present and made addresses. All pledged themselves to abide by the result of to-morrow's primaries and their remarks called forth much enthusiasm. A big vote is looked for in the Eighth to-morrow.

This evening, about 8 o'clock, at Elm Grove, for the benefit of the church of the Holy Trinity, A. N. McDonnell, of the Racine Fire Engine Company, of Wheeling, will demonstrate, through the means of a No. 13 engine, the effects of "Hydro di-oxide" fluid, compressed air power, upon an actual test to be prepared for the purpose by the town council.

A force of surveyors is at work out in Marshall county in the interest of the proposed Pittsburgh, Connellsville, Wheeling and Handlansville and along Big Wheeling creek they are making the survey 100 yards on each side of the Uniontown, Waynesburg & West Virginia railroad. They claim that a double track will be constructed, but the people living in that vicinity think the surveyors are surveying the two lines on either side of the Uniontown, Waynesburg & West Virginia railroad.

The options held on Marshall county coal lands by Messrs. Ullum, of Waynesburg, and Schaffer, of Wheeling, will expire at the end of this month, and yesterday their representatives notified the owners that the land would be purchased. The block of coal land, which aggregates $800 acres, runs from Elm Grove along Big Wheeling creek to Handlansville and thence to the river, and only a small slice in Ohio county. The farmers were greatly elated on being informed that the deal would go through.

The St. Clairsville presbytery, which closed its meeting at Cadiz Wednesday, acted favorably in adopting the Chicago conference report endorsing a shorter creed. Rev. A. W. Atkinson, of Cadiz, was elected moderator for the year, and Rev. Mr. McKay, of Concord, was chosen clerk. The fall meeting will be held at Crabapple. Rev. Messrs. Scott and Thompson, graduates of the Allegheny theological seminary, were granted licenses to preach. All the reports showed the affairs of the presbytery to be in a healthful condition.

The funeral of Mrs. J. Haase Devries occurred yesterday morning from the home of her father-in-law, Capt. R. T. Devries, South Market street, with services at the Cathedral, conducted by Father Moyer. The interment was at Mount Calvary cemetery, and the pall bearers were: Messrs. August Weltzell, John Winkler, J. J. O'Brien, J. J. O'Kane, Charles Swan and Charles Reed. The funeral services were largely attended. A sad feature of the death of Mrs. Devries is that she was married less than two years ago. Mrs. Devries' maiden name was Miss Louise Fichenberg.

Sherman Kraft yesterday represented himself to Richard Hunkles, an Ohio county farmer, as a detective. He met Hunkles near the Second ward market house and said that the latter answered to the description of a Kentucky murderer he was in search of. Kraft wanted Hunkles to remove some of his clothing so he could identify him by a bullet wound, but Hunkles persisted, and to show him that he couldn't be tampered with, Hunkles had Kraft arrested on an assault and battery warrant, and Squire Fitzpatrick made it ten days in jail. Kraft not being in possession of the fine imposed, $5 and costs.

The conference adjourned for one week, without having reached an agreement.

PRIVATE LIFE PREFERABLE

To the Vice Presidency, Says Governor Teddy Roosevelt.

CHICAGO, April 26.—Theodore Roosevelt, governor of New York, declared to-day that he would rather be in private life than be vice president of the United States. He said that his position in regard to the Republican nomination for this office was absolutely unalterable. He said he would be glad if the Republicans of New York should renominate him for governor, and expressed the belief that he could be of more service to his party and the public in that position than as vice president. The governor asked to be excused from discussing general politics.

Governor Roosevelt arrived in Chicago late to-day. He is on his way to Galena, where he is to be the orator on the occasion of Grant's birthday, to-morrow.

Hanna Opposed to Quay.

CLEVELAND, O., April 26.—Senator Hanna said to-day that the attempt to impose his motives in passing himself against Mr. Quay was ridiculous. "I was opposed to giving Mr. Quay a seat," he said, "because, under the constitution, I did not believe him entitled to a seat, on the appointment of the governor of Pennsylvania, as it was made. I never promised to vote for Mr. Quay."

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters'; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." None should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at Loran Drug Co.'s drug store.—5
